

High School Learning Support

Overview of Learning Center Components

High School Learning Support Program

Supports for Academics

Students have access to a full continuum of services through a flexible scheduling process. Based on the needs of the student as identified by the IEP team, students have opportunities to participate in the following types of classes:

- general education classes with appropriate accommodations and special education teacher consults
- general education classes with in-class support from a paraprofessional
- general education classes with reduced size and modified pace
- special education classes
- intervention classes for Reading and Math

The range of support available extends from Full Time (receiving special education services for 80% or more of the school day), Supplemental (receiving special education services for more than 20% and less than 80% of the school day) to Itinerant (Supplemental (receiving special education services for 20% or less of the school day)).
